OF THE ROCKIES

Boise First United Methodist Church

SMALL GROUPS

WINTER 2024

YOU ARE WELCOME HERE.

You are welcome at Cathedral of the Rockies no matter where you are in your faith journey. We offer a variety of classes and small groups to meet you where you are and provide a community in which you can learn and grow.

We encourage small groups to open and close with a prayer and to read the Cathedral Covenant at each meeting. Depending on the format of the group there may also be a time at the beginning or end for participants to share any personal joys or concerns.

If you'd like to host a Small Group, please reach out to Lindsay Cox or Pastor Irene Laudeman.

CATHEDRAL COVENANT

We are all on the journey of discovery, all seeking to be faithful followers of Jesus Christ. We are all learners and all teachers. We all have gifts to share. We work to listen and to learn from each other, treating each other with respect and dignity. We are a community of grace and forgiveness, glad for our diversity and differences. Disagreements will come, but we are willing to remain a part of the community and a part of the conversations, so we will not walk out or close our hearts or minds.

If you are feeling lost, alone and confused by your feelings? A support group might help. Following a loss you may experience confusing feelings, some of which might be shock, numbness, sadness, anger, guilt, anxiety, or fear. You may also experience moments of relief, peace, or happiness. Sometimes these feelings are hard to understand and deal with on your own. A grief support group is often very helpful in providing a safe place to talk about your loss with others who are also experiencing similar feelings. You don't have to suffer alone. Join a small caring group of individuals who, like you, want to be free to enjoy life anew, having worked through the feelings of loss.

Marcia Lynn is a retired psychotherapist, high school counselor and college professor. As a psychotherapist, her practice centered around individuals with addictions, survivors of abuse and those dealing with loss.

Terri Rosenthal is a retired psychotherapist, trainer, and special education teacher. She has worked with children, individuals, and families with attachment issues in children, abuse and addictions in individuals and families.

Course is limited to 8 participants per cycle. Class will continue with future cycles if the course fills. Please contact Terri or Marcia to register.

AFTER EVANGELICALISM

Session: January 17 - April 3

Group Contact: Greg Boulton | gjboulton@gmail.com

This group will read and explore the book After Evangelicalism: The Path to a New Christianity by David Gushee. Millions are getting lost in the evangelical maze: inerrancy, indifference to the environment, deterministic Calvinism, purity culture, racism, LGBTQ discrimination, male dominance, and Christian nationalism. They are now conscientious objectors, deconstructionists, perhaps even “none and done.” As one of America’s leading academics speaking to the issues of religion today, David Gushee offers a clear assessment and a new way forward for disillusioned post-evangelicals.

Group is led by Greg Boulton. Greg has a Master of Divinity from Emmanuel Christian Seminary, a Doctor of Ministry from George Fox under the tutelage of Leonard Sweet, and a teaching certification in History. Greg has also been in ministry, serving as a lead church planter, pastor, minister of discipleship, executive pastor, and youth pastor.

CENTERING PRAYER

Virginia White | virginiajwhite@gmail.com

Centering Prayer is a method of silent prayer that prepares us to receive the gift of contemplative prayer, prayer in which we experience God's presence within us, closer than breathing, closer than thinking, closer than consciousness itself. This method of prayer is both a relationship with God and a discipline to foster that relationship. We begin our prayer session with a short reading followed by a 20 minute silent sit and a closing prayer.

SATURDAY

MEN'S GROUP

8:30 - 9:30 am | Olivet Room, Downtown

Session: January 6 - Ongoing

Group Contact: Ed Morgan | ed@morganand.com

We will explore the possibilities of living our fullest lives bolstered by the support that only men can give to each other. This group will give us a time and place to get to know each other and ourselves better, build trust and compassion, share our joys and sorrows, and support each other on our journeys of discovery. Ambitious? Perhaps. But we won't know what we can do until we sit down together, break bread (actually, donuts and coffee) and begin the conversation.

This group will be led by Ed Morgan and Scott Newland. Ed moved to Boise from the Bay Area in January 2022 and joined COTR in March. He has participated in men's groups in the Bay Area and has organized two men's retreats. Scott has experience leading business networking groups and has a deep interest in connecting people together for mutual support and fellowship.

SPIRITUAL DIRECTION

Rev. Linda S. Biggs | biggs81@gmail.com

What is Spiritual Direction? Richard J. Foster in his book Celebration of Discipline says “In the Middle Ages not even the greatest saints attempted the depths of the inward journey without the help of a spiritual director. Directors often say that when they meet with a directee (the person coming for direction) there are three present in the room: the director, the directee and the Holy Spirit. The relationship at its best, is that of adviser to friend.

Rev. Linda S Biggs is an ordained elder of the United Methodist Church, retired and affiliated with the Cathedral of the Rockies. She has a Masters of Divinity from Drew Theological School in Madison, NJ and has been certified as a Spiritual Director. This is a rigorous three-year study incorporating theology, history, theory and practice.
